TIPS EXPERIENCED TRAVELERS

1. Plan ahead

This allows you to avoid unpleasant surprises and reduce the risk of problems during the trip. When planning, it is necessary to take into account all the details: route, budget, accommodation, transport, etc.

2. Study the local culture

Experienced travelers know that learning about local culture is one of the most important aspects of traveling. This allows you to understand local traditions, customs and behavior, which helps to avoid conflicts and unpleasant situations.

3. Be prepared for changes in plans

Traveling is not always a predictable activity, so experienced travelers know that it is necessary to be prepared for changes in plans. This may be due to weather conditions, transport problems or other factors. The main thing is not to panic and find solutions in any situation.

INTERVIEW WITH TRAVELERS

For this interview, we chose a traveler who has been traveling around the world for more than 10 years. He told about his adventures, favorite places and gave advice to those who are just starting their journey.

- Tell us, how did your passion for traveling begin?

I have always loved to travel, but the real passion began after my first trip to South America. I was amazed by the beauty of nature, the diversity of cultures and the way of life of the locals. Since then, I've realized that the world is so big and interesting that it's impossible to stay in one place.

- What countries and cities have you visited during your travels?

I have visited more than 50 countries and more than 100 cities. Among my favorite places are New Zealand, Japan, Iceland, Costa Rica, Italy, India and many others. Each place is unique and interesting in its own way.

- How do you choose places to travel?

I choose places that attract me with their culture, nature and history. I also like to travel to places where you can do extreme sports, such as surfing, rock climbing or base jumping.
